

Bonfire Night Terms and Conditions

1. The purchase of Ticket entitles you to gain entry to Barnes Bonfire Night at Barnes Sports Club. Only customers holding a valid Ticket will be admitted to the Event. Your Ticket may be invalidated if any part of it is removed, altered or defaced.
2. This Ticket is issued subject to T&C contained herein. Purchase of any Tickets constitutes acceptance of these T&C.
3. T&C are subject to change from time to time without notice and at our discretion. We will notify you of amendments to T&C by posting them to our website.
4. Please check Tickets carefully as errors cannot always be rectified following purchase. Tickets are not issued on a sale or return basis and refunds will not be made unless otherwise provided under T&C.
5. The Organiser is not responsible for any Ticket that is lost, stolen or destroyed. You are solely responsible for the safety of Your Ticket.
6. It is your responsibility to check that the Event has not been cancelled or rescheduled. Information on such matters will be made available as soon as reasonably practical on the Organiser's website and/or at the Event Venue. Customers are advised that the website cannot always be updated immediately and that circumstances giving rise to cancellation or postponement can sometimes arise at late notice or immediately prior to an Event.
7. Tickets will not be refunded once they have been used to gain entry to the Event.
8. For the purposes of this T&C, Force Majeure means any cause beyond the Organiser's control including, without limitation, an act of God, war, insurrection, riot, civil disturbances, acts of terrorism (or the threat thereof), fire, explosion, flood, royal mourning, national mourning, theft of essential equipment, malicious damage, strike, lock out, weather (including but not limited to high winds), third party injunction, national defence requirements and/or acts and regulations of national or local governments. The Organiser will not be liable to you for failure to perform any obligation under these T&C to the extent that the failure to perform is caused by Force Majeure.
9. In particular it is noted that this is an outdoor Event and performance is subject to the prevailing weather conditions. In the event it is deemed unsafe for any scheduled display or activities to take place, the Organiser may reschedule the Event or cancel it in its entirety. If the Event is cancelled entirely, the Organiser shall refund the face value price of the ticket. If part of the Event is cancelled, i.e. the fireworks display, the Organiser may refund some or all of the purchase price of the Ticket in its absolute discretion, but be under no obligation to do so.
10. Please take care of Your personal property at the Venue. Neither the Organiser nor the Venue can be held responsible for any personal property that is lost or damaged during the Event.
11. The Organiser reserves the right to remove persons from the venue for any reason including but not limited to behaviour that is likely to cause damage, annoyance or harm to others, health and safety reasons, if the event staff believes that you are under the influence of drugs or alcohol.
12. You shall not be permitted to bring into the Venue or display or distribute at the Event any sponsorship, promotional or marketing materials.

13. The Organiser takes the needs of customers who are disabled and those who have access requirements very seriously and actively encourages people of all abilities to attend the Event.
14. Official merchandise is available only inside the Venue. The Organiser does not accept any responsibility for the sale of unofficial merchandise.
15. You agree that the Organiser shall not be liable to You for any indirect or consequential costs, claims, actual or alleged losses howsoever arising out of or in connection with the Event.
16. The Organiser will not have any liability to You whatsoever for loss or expenses.
17. The Organiser shall not be liable for the acts of omissions of the Venue for any personal injury suffered at the Venue.
